Earlier today a terrified young woman arrived at the US Marshall's office with a horrific tale: her entire family had disappeared from outside their house near Banks as wolves howled ferociously in the nearby woods. She feared the worst. Now she's aboard the train leading concerned family members and two armed lawmen back to the terrible scene. But no one knows the wolf is still waiting. And only one man knows what it really is...

MURDER MYSTERY DINNER

Saturday, October 17th at 7pm

When a motion picture crew travels by train to a jungle location shoot, movie magic turns to movie tragic when the film's producer is found dead. Will homicide strike a minor chord on this major motion picture? It's up to you to produce the right evidence showing motive, means, and opportunity! A plated white china, black linen dinner will accompany the evening.
